What is it about?

For our theatre project „BEIDE QUELLEN MEINES ALTEN BLUTES - a Jew Collection in Action“, the Swiss-German author Julie Paucker and the actresses Hadar Dimand from Israel and Nadia Midgal from Germany, who currently lives in Tel Aviv, go in search of traces of German-Jewish-Israeli history, present and future. Starting with their own biographies, they ask about what unites and divides them, about old certainties and new prejudices. They look at „being German“, „being Jewish“, „being Israeli“ and playfully examine how the relationship has changed over three generations.

What do we do?

We are the KULA Compagnie, an international theatre company that develops multilingual theatre productions with artists from over 10 nations. As part of this project, we are creating an interactive game of cards with short video sequences for our homepage and for social media, in which people are asked to answer 10 questions each - briefly and without thinking long and hard.

And now we are asking YOU to help us. We have already conducted many interviews, but we also want to know YOUR OPINION.

These short snippets will then be available at www.kulacompagnie.eu.

What do you have to do?

1. Take 10 minutes of your time
2. Use your smartphone to record the video.
3. Record in „portrait format“, not „landscape format“.
4. Make sure that your face is in the centre of the picture. Choose a neutral background (a plain-coloured wall, etc.).
5. Prepare the questions, but don't think about the answers beforehand - we want spontaneous answers.
6. Start the recording, read the question aloud and answer after a short pause.
7. Don't worry about any slips, stutters, pauses etc. - we will still edit the material and remove „mistakes“ afterwards.
8. After you have answered all the questions, send the video - either directly or via Wetransfer - to: info@kulacompagnie.eu with the subject „Video Both Sources“.
9. We also would like to publish your name, your nationality as well as the city and country you live in. If you do not agree to this, just let us know.
